Conclusion :

Through what we referred to above of pedagogical and scientific researchs and achievements , we have interests in the fields :

- Comparative literature.
- Modern and contemporary literature, its problems and themes.
- Modern and contemporary literary criticism.
- Intellectual discourses's Criticism – discourse analysis –

From this standpoint, we aspire in the future to write pedagogical publications on « marginal literature » as well as on « postcolonial studies » or « postmodern literature » given the importance of these subjects.

As for the scientific side ; We have many ambitions for the future, the most important of which are :

- Organizing international forums to introduce our intellectual figures.
- Writing books about the reality of comparative studies in Algeria, and other books on the Arabic novel, and a series of books on our intellectual figures.
